ASDA APS HAWAIIAN PHILATELIC SOCIETY CHINA STAMP SOCIETY

Earlier this year a request was received from the National Park Service (NPS) and the Sisters of St. Francis (Sisters), both located in Kalaupapa, for assistance from the Hawaiian Philatelic Society. In the 1950's the residents of the colony formed a stamp club and thus started the accumulation in the pictures below. My wife, Junior, and I responded to the request and arrived in Kalaupapa on October 21st and were met by our sponsors, Julia Aleszczyk (NPS Curator) and Sister Alicia. No one visits Kalaupapa without a sponsor and those visitors are heavily regulated. It was indeed an honor to visit Kalaupapa.

Once settled in, we got to see firsthand the enormous accumulation of stamps. Briefly, it was quickly recognized the Kalaupapa Stamp Club was more of a social club than a philatelic endeavor. Residents would gather in a sharing environment and "clip" stamps from correspondence received from all over the world. The major portion was from the 1950's, when it appears the club was formed, with very few stamps prior to that date. Sadly, there was not a "Missionary Stamp" hidden in the accumulation. The stamps did not suffer from the usual tropical stain, termite or cockroach damage—go figure. The accumulation was divided between cut squares and stamps that had been very nicely soaked off their paper.

The greatest find for me was the Certificate of Appreciation (see below) presented to the Club in 1951 from the HPS. No record was found describing the contribution and the original remains with the NPS.

With first-hand experience and a better understanding of the need it was decided a second visit would be needed. A "Team HPS"; consisting of Wayne Yakuma, Glenn Yokohama, Jerry Coiner, Ben Gale and Joe Bonkowski will be returning December 2 – December 5, 2019. There is no specific plan for what will become of the accumulation. What is known is it will be preserved in its entirety. To that end, the mission will be to sort the accumulation by country, preserving representative specimens for display in albums. With the remaining accumulation preserved in a clear container displaying the enormous amount of correspondence and the many, many countries the residents corresponded with during that decade plus.

An update and a more detailed article will be in a future copy of the Po'Oleka in 2020.
