Houoli Makahiki Hou!!

- ① Po'Oleka – Yes, issue #90 is officially in the mail and moving through the USPS system. Hindered only by a few Christmas cards/packages. We'll see if #91 is a tad more punctual. Remember, you can always read back issues on the Society's website www.hpshawaii.com.
- ② Philip S. Jones – Passed away on October 29, 2020 in Columbus, IN. Philip, in addition to his philatelic interests, was also a woodcarver. Prior to his death, Philip submitted lots from his Hawaiian collection which will be up for auction in January 2021. Condolences to his long -time companion and his family.
- ③ Help needed – Your Society needs you! Several Board members have expressed interest in “retiring” and allowing some “fresh blood” to transition in. And NO, you do not have to live in Honolulu or even Hawaii. Many of the Society's functions can be accomplished through the internet, phone, USPS, etc. Please contact Ben @ 808-351-4361. Mahalo in advance!
- ④ McCulley Stamp & Coin – Good news! Mitzi McArthur has relocated the store to 1330 Beretania St., Suite 303. It is now called the Honolulu Coin, Stamp & Collectibles. Store hours are 10-6:30 Monday through Saturday except for 10-2 on Wednesday. Please help spread the good news and all are encouraged to support Mitzi and her desire to give Honolulu a store for collectors. Best wishes.
