E KOMO MAI – Ken VandenBussche; Kekaha, Hawaii.

McCULLY STAMP & COIN – Plans are underway to reopen under new management in early July 2020. More as it becomes available. Check the HPS website or Twitter.

TWITTER ACCOUNT – The Society now has a presence on Twitter. You can find the account under Hawaiian Philatelic Society or at the Twitter handle @HawaiianStamps. If you are a Twitter user or have ever considered joining, please follow our account. It will serve as a way to reach non-members and also provide announcements for members. We will post content to further interest in Hawaiian stamps and postal history. If you would like to contribute and are not a Twitter user, you can email hawaiianphilatelictwitter@gmail.com with any content to share-an interesting cover, a clear town cancel, fancy cancel, a fun fact about a particular issue or group of issues. Please help us expand the reach of the organization to the very global audience. Mahalo nui loa to Kurt Streepy for his efforts on this outreach.

SAVE THE DATE - Kurt Streepy, Society Member, will be hosting an APS Stamp Chat on June 24th at 7PM Eastern time on "Collecting Hawaii: How to Get Started". It will be a general introduction to collecting Hawaii stamps and postal history. With a focus on the banknote and pictorial issues. More details and a gentle reminder will be sent by the Society to all Members who have listed their email address with the Membership Chair. Kurt completed a stamp chat several weeks ago and it can be viewed on YouTube <https://youtu.be/CCMJ2UpmKY>. His topic was on collecting First Issues worldwide.

SESCAL 2020 – This show is still scheduled for October 2-4, 2020 in Ontario, CA. Let us hope that stays on the calendar.

HPS WEBSITE – Check it out for past bulletins, Po'Oleka's, and Covers for sale. Also, try the on-line bidding form. Save time, postage, and confidence of a timely delivery.
